THE KRAKEN OF CAPE MADRE

It's been almost two years, but the nightmares still haunt Miriam Brooks—grisly images of her brother being slaughtered. A relaxing Spring Break at the beach seems like a good way to put some distance between her and the troubling past, but paradise shatters when she saves a tourist from something lurking beneath the waves.

Soon, she's on the trail of a sea creature from the legends of Vikings and Pirates. The fishermen of Cape Madre tell tales for the right price, and Miriam quickly learns of a string of disappearances all related to this mysterious monster.

The cops and the coast guard are meant to handle the crimes of men, but Miriam's been trained to find the creatures of lore—creatures like this. Pulled back into the life she wants to forget, Miriam is the last line of defense between man and myth.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR

J.P. Barnett is the author of the acclaimed Lorestalker books. The first in the series, The Beast of Rose Valley, debuted to stellar reviews. He has won numerous awards from the San Antonio

Writers' Guild, and his work is also featured in Short Stories by Texas Authors Vol. 4. His third novel, The Witch of Gray's Point, is set for release in December 2019.

A Texas native, J.P. Barnett's Lorestalker series is set all over the state of Texas, with a focus on cryptozoology and monsters of lore. J.P. currently resides in San Antonio with his wife and cat, both of whom look at him dubiously with some frequency.
